

GET TO KNOW SAM!

01

GROWING UP

Sam grew up in the small rural Ohio town of Richwood just north of Marysville.

02

TRACK & FIELD

Sam was a national qualifying long and high jumper at MVNU and he and his wife are still active in the track community as they help coach a high school team in the Columbus area.

03

FITNESS

Sam has found a love for running since college and has even run a marathon.

04

FAMILY

Family is essential to Sam. Plenseh-Tay is his beautiful wife. They have a boy named Judah and they have a girl named Acacia. Ask him and he would love to show you pictures of his little clan!

05

FAITH

Sam is a Christian and proclaims that to be the most important aspect of his life. The Nordquist family is heavily involved in all aspects of their church with Sam helping out with finances and Plenseh-Tay creating the church website.

06

TRAVEL

Sam and his wife have traveled to over 20 states and even some international travel. They love to meet new people in their travels and see things that are postcard worthy. But the best part is experiencing such things together!

07

ALL I WANT FOR CHRISTMAS IS MY TWO FRONT TEETH?

Sam is known to work hard and play harder. While playing pick-up basketball with Joe's AAU team who were freshman in high school, Sam dove for the ball and inadvertently knocked his two front teeth out. The interesting part is that this was a month before his wedding. Thankfully he got them fixed and Plenseh-Tay still said, "I do".

08

ROOMMATES

Sam and Joe, owner of Peak Retirement Planning, Inc. were good friends in college and were roommates after college as well. Joe sums up his relationship with Sam as "one of the most genuine people I know".
